

LEADING IN UNCERTAIN TIMES

A REMOTE WORKSHOP BY JEN HETZEL SILBERT & TONY SILBERT

Living and leading in a COVID world requires a delicate mix of confidence and humility while navigating ambiguity and uncertainty. This workshop strengthens manager-leader awareness, providing strength-based tools for improving the quality of engagement, productivity, collaboration and communication.

This offering is ideal for managers and leaders, persons responsible for managing multiple individuals and/or multiple teams. Offerings are available in modular 2-3 hour digital workshops, with the option of supplementary 1-hour action learning check-ins to integrate workshop insights with real-world challenges.

- Learn leading practices in leveraging your team's diverse strengths while working in times of adversity, uncertainty and change.
- Learn how to support teams to navigate change successfully with an appreciative, solution-focused mindset.
- Build resilience and empathy in ways that boost team productivity and positivity while successfully adapting to the challenges being faced in a new world.
- Strengthen your ability to lead in a VUCA (Volatility Uncertainty Complexity and Ambiguity) market with calculated confidence and a compelling vision of the future.
- Apply workshop learning and insights to real world + workplace challenges.
